A Message From The Mayor

It's a pleasure to welcome you to Honolulu — the eleventh largest city in our nation. I invite you to explore our island and enjoy the variety of cultures that make Oahu such a unique blend of East and West.

Our climate allows for an array of outdoor activities, whether you prefer swimming, sailing, golfing, hiking, jogging or people watching. Our parks and beaches, such as Hanauma Bay, as well as our botanical gardens, are not to be missed.

Honolulu is also a city of festivals. Each week, you'll find a mix of cultural events that showcase our rich heritage. Picturesque districts such as Chinatown are perfect for browsing or shopping for that special gift.

During your stay, take time to visit places where history was made such as Iolani Palace and Pearl Harbor. Above all, get to know our people. They will show you the spirit of aloha.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Harris
Mayor

THE FACTS

Oahu. It is the commercial center as well as the most populated of the Hawaiian Islands with over 850,000 inhabitants. Here you will find the capital city of Honolulu and popular Waikiki Beach. There is much to discover on this island.

Here are some quick facts about Oahu.

Nickname: The Gathering Place
Flower: Ilima
Color: Yellow

DID YOU KNOW?

Oahu is the military command center of the Pacific.

HIGHLIGHTS

Diamond Head: This famous landmark peaks at 720 feet and provides a spectacular view of Honolulu.

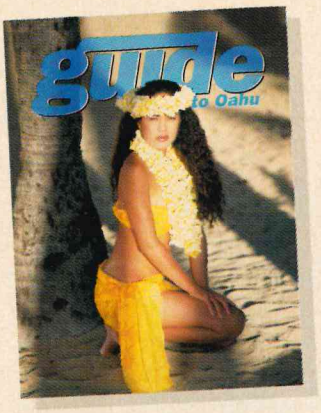

North Shore: Surfing is synonymous with this side of the island. Winter swells create the monstrous waves that draw the world's best surfers to these beaches each winter.

Nuuanu Pali Lookout: This scenic lookout provides a panoramic view of the island's windward side.

Pearl Harbor: This harbor is the site of the historic Arizona Memorial. A somber moment in US history is recalled at this harbor. A Japanese air raid on Dec. 7, 1941 sunk the USS Arizona, and the United States entered World War II. Call 422-2771.

National Memorial Cemetery: Located in Punchbowl Crater, this national cemetery is the resting place for American servicemen and women. Call 566-1430.

What is a Pupu?

In Hawaii, a pupu is an appetizer. Hawaii's cuisine is heavily influenced by a colorful blend of cultures, so there are pupus for every taste. Here are some pupus you are likely to encounter . . .

CHINESE
dim sum: meat, seafood and vegetable dumplings.

FILIPINO
lumpia: similar to an egg roll, contains beef, sprouts and vegetables.

HAWAIIAN
pipikaula: flank steak that is either dried or smoked and usually seasoned with Hawaiian salt and peppercorns.

poke: raw seafood usually marinated with red pepper, Hawaiian salt, sesame, green onion; as in tako poke (octopus), served hot or mild.

JAPANESE
sashimi: raw tuna or ahi served with shoyu (soy sauce) and wasabi (hot mustard), served on a bed of cabbage.

sushi: countless varieties; seafood and vegetable wraps with rice and seaweed.

edamame: boiled soy beans, prepared like boiled peanuts.

yakitori: grilled chicken skewers.

PORTUGUESE
malasadas: doughnuts without holes that are deep fried and dipped in sugar.

THAI/VIETNAMESE
summer rolls: fresh rolls (not fried) usually containing shrimp, mint, noodles.

spring rolls: are the fried variation of the same.

A Delectable Recipe from the Kitchen of ROYAL STEAK & SEAFOOD

Seared Ahi

INGREDIENTS

AHI
5-6 oz. Ahi Fillet
2 Eggs
Flour
Mixture of Panko (Japanese bread crumbs) and Furikake

SAUCE
1 tsp. Soy Sauce
1 oz. Butter
2 oz. Clam Juice
2 oz. Milk
1 oz. Oyster Sauce
Wasabi Paste to taste
Roux for thickening (2 oz. melted butter mixed with 2 oz. flour)

VEGETABLES
Zucchini (1/4" thick half moon slices)
Carrot (1/4" thick half moon slices)
Red Bell Pepper (Seared and cut julienne-style)
1 tsp. chopped fresh garlic
1 tbsp. butter

GARNISH
Ogo (edible seaweed)

ROYAL STEAK & SEAFOOD

Instructions

Prepare ahi by cutting fillet to portion size. Dust in flour, then egg wash, then add panko-furikake mix. Sear in hot oil until golden brown on both sides.

Prepare sauce by heating clam juice, milk, soy sauce and oyster sauce to boil in sauce pan. Thicken with roux. Cook on low for 15 minutes, stirring constantly with whip. Finish with wasabi paste and butter. Sauce should coat spoon lightly. Keep warm.

Prepare wok vegetables by cutting zucchini, bell pepper and carrots. Blanch carrots in boiling water until half-cooked. Strain and cool in iced water. Strain and add zucchini and pepper.

Finally, sauté vegetables with butter and garlic in hot wok. Lay in the middle of the plate. Sear ahi and lay on top of vegetables. Ladle sauce over ahi. Garnish with fresh ogo and serve.

Luau, Anyone?

No vacation to Hawaii is complete without a luau experience. For many, the luau is synonymous with Hawaiian dining. For the ancient Hawaiians, the luau was a feast that celebrated and honored the religious and sacred rituals in life — births, deaths and even work.

What can you expect at a traditional luau?

poi: thick, pudding-like starch made from taro

kalua pig: pork that is shredded, steamed and cooked in an underground pit lomi lomi salmon: salmon mixed with tomatoes and onions and chilled overnight chicken long rice: clear rice noodles with chicken and green onions lau lau: servings of fish and meat wrapped in taro leaves and steamed

haupia: coconut pudding

...and of course hula performances and lots of music!

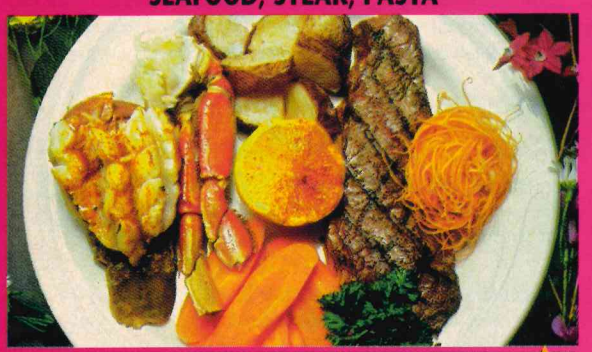

Today, the luau is still practiced by many a local family to commemorate happy events such as first birthdays, marriages or graduations. Add a luau to your list of experiences with Ali'i Luau (293-3333), Germaine's Luau (949-6626) or Paradise Cove Luau (973-5828).

Check the Hula Guide and Dining Guide for more information.

With Aloha from Hawaii...

Having trouble finding the perfect gift? Here are some ideas to consider:

ATTIRE

What could be more Hawaiian than the comfortable attire worn by island residents on Aloha Friday? An aloha shirt is the perfect gift for men. For women, it's the muumuu.

If you're going for a more casual, local-style gift, try a cool pair of board shorts, a commemorative Hawaiian T-shirt and don't forget the slippers!

BOOKS

Looking for a gift for the more literary type? A child? Or someone who just likes pictures? You can find a book to suit each one. Try "Hawaii: Heaven on Earth," featuring articles about Hawaii with portraits of "the local girl." It makes a wonderful coffee-table piece. (See page 21.)

CRAFTS

Bring back the island-spirit with unique crafts for the home. These practical gifts won't end up gathering dust in the closet! Looking for a special gift for a young child or infant? How abou a beautiful hand-crafted Hawaiian quilt? Another unique Hawaiian gift is a handsome koa bowl, perfect for display.

Advice for the Malihini

Even if you're a malihini (newcomer), you know that Hawaii is paradise and that the spirit of aloha is widely-practiced here. However, as in any major city, use common sense to keep yourself and your possessions safe.

For a worry-free stay-

- Take valuables out of the rental car before stepping out to admire a scenic view. Don't forget to lock the door!
- Don't display expensive items.
- Carry travelers cheques and credit cards instead of large amounts of cash.
- Leave valuables in the hotel safe or locked in the hotel room.

Island Style

Hawaii's most famous contribution to world fashion is arguably the aloha shirt. In the 1930s, Hawaii's clothing industry produced flashy, all-occasion sportswear for beachgoers and tourists. The shirt was originally made of lightweight Japanese kimono fabric. The term "aloha shirt" originated from a 1935 newspaper ad for a Honolulu clothier who advertised shirts for 95 cents. Authentic "silkies" that cost $3.95 in the 1950s are collectors' items worth hundreds of dollars. But today's fashions at stores like Hilo Hattie cost about $25.

Don't let a shortage of cash ruin your shopping spree. Hawaii Check Cashing specializes in foreign currency exchange, traveler's checks, money orders, telephone calling cards, inter-island coupons, mailbox services, faxes and tours. And they're government-approved to buy Japanese yen. Hawaii Check Cashing is located in Waikiki at 159 Kaiulani Ave. For more information, call 922-5600 ■

Ancient Chinese practices offer an alternative to conventional Western medicine.

Restoring Harmony

Feeling a bit under the weather? Before reaching for an aspirin, you may want to check the other alternatives available to you.

Consider Chinese medicine. There is more to Chinese medicine than acupuncture needles and jars of exotic-looking herbs. Although it has only been recently that Chinese practices such as acupuncture are being considered more seriously by Western medical doctors, Chinese medicine has actually existed for over 2,000 years.

Chinese medicine is not merely a different way of treating a patient, it is an entirely different way of looking at the human body. Where Western medicine looks for one specific cause for your symptoms, Chinese medicine evaluates not only the symptoms but also your body's general characteristics as well as mental state. Herbal medicine and acupuncture are used to restore balance to your body and mind.

If you are interested in Chinese medicine and what it can do for you, see Tom J. Huang, a licensed acupuncturist and herbal medicine practitioner. Huang's Acupuncture and Herbs is located at 420 Nahua St. Call 922-7188 for appointments.

Advice for Sun Worshippers

Before you rush to the beach to begin your own sun-worshipping ritual, here are some tips to make your tanning a pleasant, sunburn-free experience:

- The best times to tan are between 8:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. and after 3 p.m. You should minimize your exposure during the middle of the day when the sun's rays are at their strongest.
- Read the labels of sunscreens. You may be allergic to paba, an ingredient in many sunscreens. Stick to paba-free products.
- Use sunscreen with a sun protection factor (SPF) of at least 15. The higher the SPF the better. For best results, apply sunscreen 15 minutes before going out in the sun. Reapply it every 2 hours and also after swimming.
- Don't stay out in the sun too long, especially in the beginning. Slowly increase your exposure time.
- Children's skin can be especially sensitive to the sun, so be conscientious about applying sunscreen.
- Don't forget the eyes. Wear sunglasses with at least 99 percent UVA and UVB protection.

Oahu Beach Guide

SOUTH SHORE BEACHES

Extending east from Barber's Point to Makapuu Point, Oahu's south shore features Waikiki Beach, Ala Moana Beach Park and Pearl Harbor.

Ala Moana Beach Park
Located across from Ala Moana Shopping Center, its long sandy beach makes it ideal for swimming, picnics and surfing. R ✆ Sh W L Su

Diamond Head Beach Park
Situated along the cliffs of Diamond Head Crater, this beach is a favorite of surfers and windsurfers. R ✆ Sh W L Su

Hanauma Bay
One of the most popular beaches in the state, this park offers the best snorkeling and diving on the island. This bay charges a slight fee for maintenance and is closed to the public on Wednesdays. R ✆ Sh L

Kaimana/San Souci Beach Park
On the edge of Waikiki near the Aquarium, the calm waters of this beach make it perfect for swimmers and families. R ✆ Sh L Su

Sandy Beach Park
Located off Kalanianaole Highway, this beach offers great bodysurfing and surfing conditions. Yet, this is not a beach for novice swimmers. Beware of strong currents and hazardous surf conditions. R ✆ Sh L Su

WINDWARD BEACHES

This eastern shoreline extends from Makapuu Point to Kahuku Point. Unique to this area are the abundance of small islands off the shoreline that can be reached by boat.

Kailua Beach Park
Featuring great windsurfing and kayaking conditions, this beach is located just off Kawailoa Road. R ✆ Sh L Su

Kaneohe Beach Park
Just off of Kaneohe Bay Drive, this beach features sandbars and great picnicking. R ✆ Sh L

Kualoa Beach Park
Located off Kamehameha Highway, this beach features a spectacular view of Chinaman's Hat (Mokolii Island). R ✆ Sh L C

Lanikai Beach
With its sandy beach and nearby Mokulua Islets, this beach is a favorite of local families. Su

Waimanalo Beach Park
This beach offers small surf for the body surfing beginner as well as great camping sites. R ✆ Sh L C Su

Makapuu Beach Park
One of the best bodyboarding spots on the island, this beach is located across from Sea Life Park near the lighthouse. R ✆ Sh L Su

NORTH SHORE BEACHES

Also known as the "Surfing Capital," Oahu's north shore extends from Kahuku Point to Kaena Point. With surf exceeding 20 feet in the winter months, these beaches are hazardous for novices.

Ehukai Beach Park
Home of "Banzai" Pipeline, this popular surfing spot hosts many international surfing championships. Turbulent surf and strong currents make this ride for experts only. R ✆ Sh L Su

Haleiwa Beach Park
After a day of picnicking and swimming at this beach, hop over to Historic Haleiwa Town for some shave ice. R ✆ Sh L Su

Mokuleia Beach Park
Just off of Farrington Highway, this beach offers less crowds and a perspective of the island not often seen by visitors. ✆ Sh C Su

Sunset Beach Park
Offering great surfing and beach conditions, this area possesses strong currents that can become dangerous. Sh L Su

Waimea Beach Park
Whether you want to jump off "the rock," swim or watch professional surfers ride the waves, Waimea offers a full day of activities for everyone. R ✆ Sh L Su

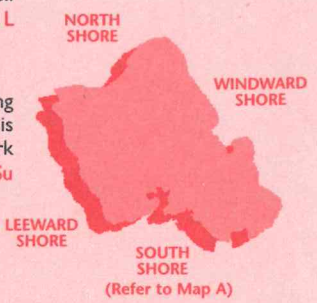

LEEWARD SHORE BEACHES

Located on the western side of the island, this shoreline offers the least populated beaches on the island. Popular activities include hiking, camping, surfing, diving and snorkeling.

Makaha Beach Park
One of the best surf spots on this side of the island, Makaha also offers great diving spots offshore. R ✆ Sh L Su

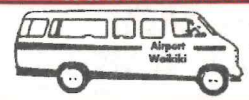

Nanakuli Beach Park
Located off Farrington Highway, this beach is a popular local beach and camping spot. R ✆ Sh L Su C

R - restrooms
✆ - public phones
Sh - showers
L - lifeguards
Su - surf
C - camping
W - wheelchair access

Driving Tips

while visiting Oahu

Oahu is the third largest island statewide. The isle has a 112-mile coastline. At its widest point, it is 60 miles long and 30 miles wide. The narrowest point, from Honolulu to Kailua, is 11 miles.

Hawaiians use the following terms for compass directions:

- Makai – toward the sea
- Mauka – toward the mountains
- Diamond Head – toward Diamond Head
- Ewa – opposite direction from Diamond Head
- Windward – east shore
- Leeward – west shore

When driving in Honolulu, remember that the city has many one-way streets and imperative-turn lanes. It is legal to turn right on red after stopping, unless otherwise noted. Pedestrians have the right of way.

See GUIDE'S Map Section for directions. Drive safely and enjoy your ride in Paradise!

Take A Hike!

Oahu's Trails

In Oahu, adventure is not only found on the sandy shores or under the deep blue waters. Hawaii's trails offer a cool alternative. Here are a few trails to try:

Diamond Head (0.7 mile)
- Off Diamond Head Rd. between Makapu'u Ave. and 18th Ave.
- Bring a flashlight for dark tunnels

Hauula Loop (2.5 miles)
- From Kamehameha Hwy. at Hauula, turn onto the northern access of Hauula Homestead Rd., continue until road bends left. Trail begins straight ahead from bend
- Majestic views of Hauula town and the ocean

Manoa Falls (0.8 mile)
- Near the entrance of Lyon Arboretum; ends at the base of Manoa Falls
- Good for beginners

Maunawili Demonstration Trail (10 miles)
- At Nuuanu Pali Lookout proceed right down the old abandoned roadway
- Dramatic views of the Koolau Mountains

Making a Splash with BANANA BOAT RIDERS of Hawaii

Banana Boat Riders brings the newest ocean rafting adventure to Oahu, sure to become the "Best Ride in Waikiki." This thrilling experience takes place aboard a 32 foot rigid inflatable craft and is powered by twin 225 horsepower outboards. These unique boats provide superior comfort, safety, excitement and speed. Passengers sit facing forward on banana-shaped air-filled pontoons.

The captains of these racing hulls are experienced and Coast Guard licensed. They will be your guides to the Hawaii experience that many miss: racing the waves, chasing the sun and flying with the dolphins.

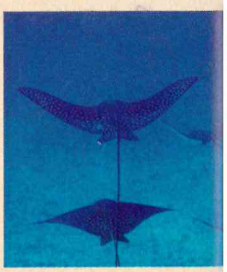

So get ready for some fun in the sun. Put on some swimming attire, a T-shirt, hat, slippers and sunscreen, and head to Banana Boat Riders of Hawaii. Experience the thrill of a lifetime by racing along Waikiki Beach and the leeward side of Oahu's pristine coastline on the Banana Boat. Banana Boat Riders is also available for private use for parties, receptions, theme events and more. Free hotel shuttle. Call 922-5588 for reservations.

GEARING UP

You've got your suntan lotion and beach mat. But if you're really looking for some fun, you're going to have to go into the water, and for that you'll need the gear.

Part of the fun of heading out to the beach for snorkeling and diving is getting the gear and accessories. So don't take all the fun out of it by getting gear that isn't right for you.

Fit is very important when it comes to snorkel and dive gear, says Chris of South Seas Aquatics. The first step you should take is to consult with the experts at South Seas Aquatics. They'll help you find equipment with the proper fit and can set you up with everything you need from masks, snorkels and fins to scuba diving equipment.

South Seas Aquatics is a great place to stock up on equipment, because they have great prices and selection. They also offer daily boat dives, introductory dives and certification courses. Located in the same building as Planet Hollywood at 2155 Kalakaua Ave., Suite 112. Open Monday to Saturday from 10 a.m. - 9 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. - 9 p.m. Call 922-0852.

Getting in touch with Hawaii's culture has never been easier.

Special: The Aloha Festivals

Block parties. Grand floral parades. Royal courts. And aloha all around. What's it all about? Find out at the Aloha Festivals.

Now in its 52nd year, the Aloha Festivals is the largest celebration of Hawaii's culture and heritage. The numbers are impressive. Six islands take part in the festivities with a total of 300 events spanning two months. All of this is made possible by the dedication of nearly 30,000 volunteers.

The Aloha Festivals started out as Aloha Week, a cultural celebration of Hawaii's music, dance and history. Over the decades, the Aloha Festivals developed into a celebration of the present Hawaii experience as influenced by the Pacific, Asia and the West.

This year, the theme is "Ola Ka 'Oiwi, The Natives Endure" and celebrates traditional values and beliefs, particularly the close relationship of the ancient Hawaiians with the land.

The Aloha Festivals encourages all to celebrate aloha. Aloha means many things — it is a positive, reciprocal bond, a mutual respect, affection, love, a warm greeting and a fond farewell.

For more information about the Aloha Festivals, call 545-1771.

Festival Highlights

Aug. 20
Royal Court Investiture
Honolulu Hale (City Hall)
The festival's king, queen, prince and princess receive symbols of royalty.

Downtown Ho'olaule'a Downtown Honolulu
Food, dance, leis and entertainment are all featured at this popular celebration.

Sept. 12
Aloha Festivals Floral Parade
Ala Moana Boulevard to Kalakaua Avenue
Probably the best-known event of the Aloha Festivals, this parade is one of the most-watched televised events in the nation with an estimated 41 million viewers.

Sept. 18
Waikiki Ho'olaule'a
Kalakaua Avenue
This is Hawaii's largest block party and features food, dancing, entertainment by Hawaii's brightest stars and more.

Oct. 30
Royal Ball
Hilton Hawaiian Village
Concluding the statewide Aloha Festivals celebration, this regal ball is reminiscent of the elegant receptions of Hawaii's monarchial past.

For Island-Hoppers

Snuba® Go beyond snorkeling!

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY!

Snuba combines the ease of snorkeling with the continuous underwater breathing ability of scuba diving. Air is provided via a tethered 20 foot umbilical connecting you and a companion to an inflatable raft that tows along at the surface. No prior snorkeling or diving experience is necessary. Participants must be at least 8 years old, in good health and comfortable under water.

Snuba diving is safe and easy. Your introduction to Snuba begins with a familiarization with the Snuba equipment you will be using and a brief description of what you can expect in the water. After being fitted for all the dive-related equipment, you and five other participants will be guided on a 30-minute Snuba Adventure.

Snuba dives are offered at Waikiki, the famous Hanauma Bay Beach Park, the Maunalua Bay ocean sports center, and Ko'olina. Round trip transportation is available from any Waikiki hotel. Photos, videos, underwater cameras and Snuba T-shirts are available for purchase for lasting memories. For more information or reservations, call 396-6163.

AN ADVENTURE DOWN UNDER

Going below sea level to explore Hawaii's unique marine life no longer requires diving skills or swimming ability. Passenger submarines now enable you to experience marine life as never before. The world's most advanced passenger submarines are the yellow submarines from Voyager Submarines Hawaii.

Voyager I and Voyager II are state-of-the-art passenger submarines. They are capable of diving 328 feet and have a top speed of seven knots underwater, making them the fastest sightseeing submersibles in the world. And they are also battery powered to protect the precious marine environment.

Since 1994, Voyager Submarines Hawaii has been taking people 100 feet below sea level to marvel at Hawaii's natural reefs, ancient lava flows, volcanic boulders and colorful marine life. The trip is accompanied by expert narration as well as a high-tech laser disk show featuring fiery volcanoes, dolphins, tropical fish and more!

Soar Like an Eagle

For the ultimate air adventure, ride the wind in a state-of-the-art glider. Soar Hawaii has the most modern gliders and is the largest flight-training center in the Pacific. The panoramic view through their bubble-topped canopies gives you a spectacular look at Oahu's famous North Shore. Thrill at views of volcanic mountains, lush tropical vegetation, picture-perfect coral reefs and white sandy beaches.

Choose from three 30 - 60 minute flights — scenic, introductory flying lessons and aerobatic-type rides.The sightseeing ride is an excellent way to experience the beauty of Oahu. If you're interested in a hands-on approach, try the introductory flying lesson ride. It puts you in the pilot's seat under the guidance of an FAA-certified flight instructor. Or take a ride on the wild side with the aerobatic flight.

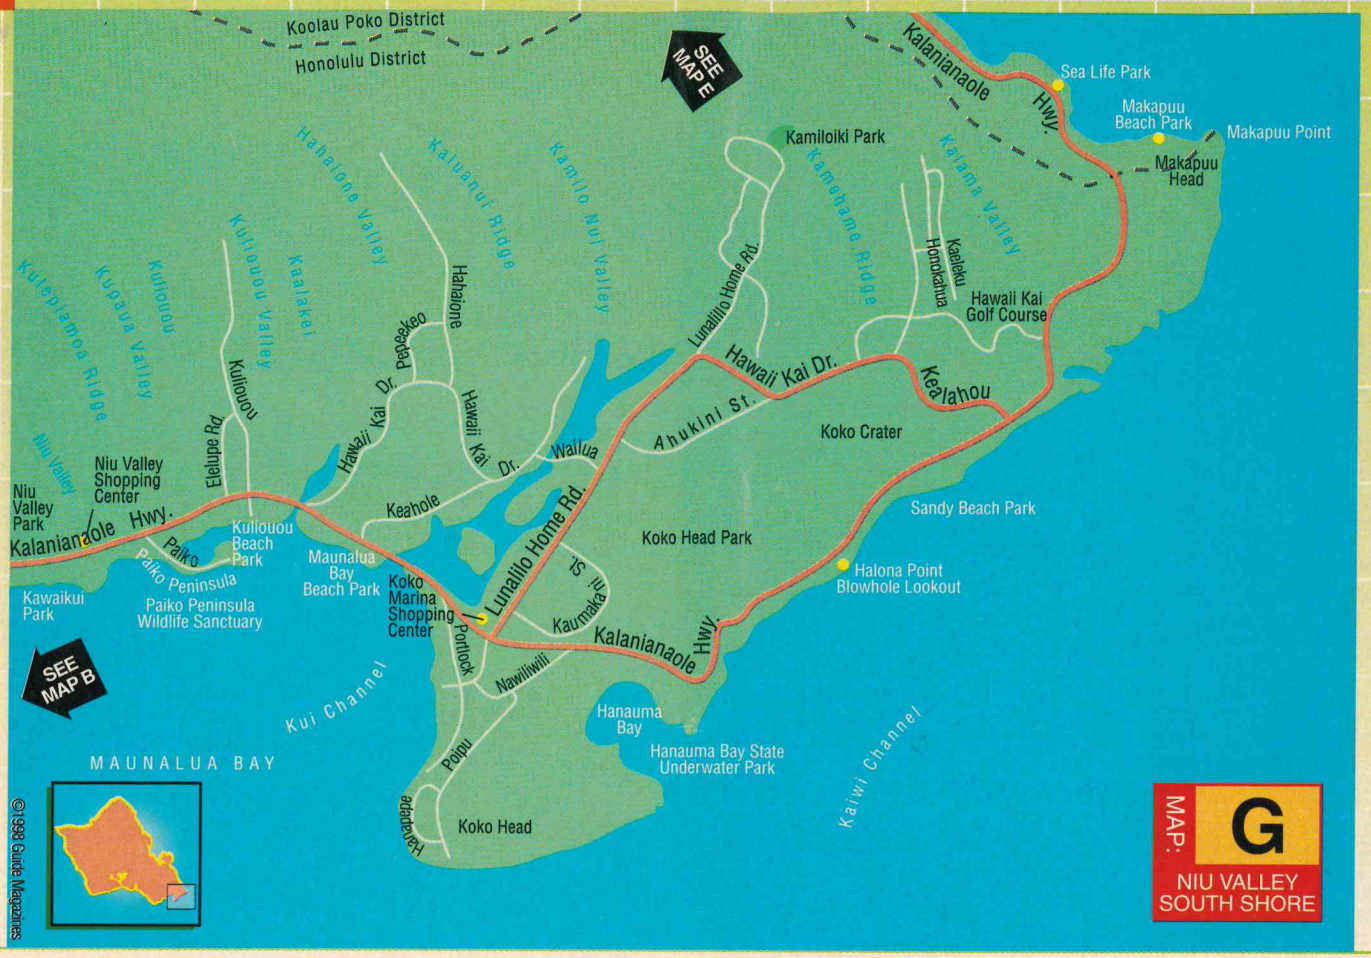

Soar Hawaii is open daily at Dillingham Airfield, Mokuleia from 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. Reservations are not necessary, but you will receive a $10 discount when you make a reservation. Free hotel pick-up. Call 637-3147. For Japanese-speaking salesperson, call 554-5479.

Tower Records' Hot Hawaiian Picks

If you're looking for the best Hawaiian music, Tower Records recommends the following:

THE BEST OF KA'AU CRATER BOYS
Combining a fresh blend of guitar and 'ukulele, the Ka'au Crater Boys have become one of the most popular duos in contemporary Hawaiian music. Their music reflects their love for Hawaii and the Hawaiian lifestyle.

IZ IN CONCERT:
THE MAN AND HIS MUSIC
This collection of Israel Kamakawiwo'ole's concert recordings is an excellent introduction to the music of this talented and much-loved Hawaiian artist who died last June.

HANAIALI'I
A blend of contemporary Hawaiian music reminiscent of old Hawaii, this album features the beautiful collabration of Amy Hanaiali'i and Willie K.

Making Your Lei Last

A lei is too beautiful an adornment to wear just once. You'll be surprised at how a little attention will keep your lei looking fresh.

Here are some ways to care for your lei:

To care for your carnation and plumeria leis:

- Sprinkle or dip in cool water.
- Wrap in a cellophane bag.
- Refrigerate.
- Shake off the water before putting it on.

To care for your tuberose, pikake or cigar flower leis:

- Wrap in wax paper or plastic bag.
- Keep dry in refrigerator.

Find out everything about Hawaii you never thought to ask. Find the coolest souvenirs. And you don't even have to leave home.Just go to www.everythinghawaii.com.
